

repoVisualizer

What is this?

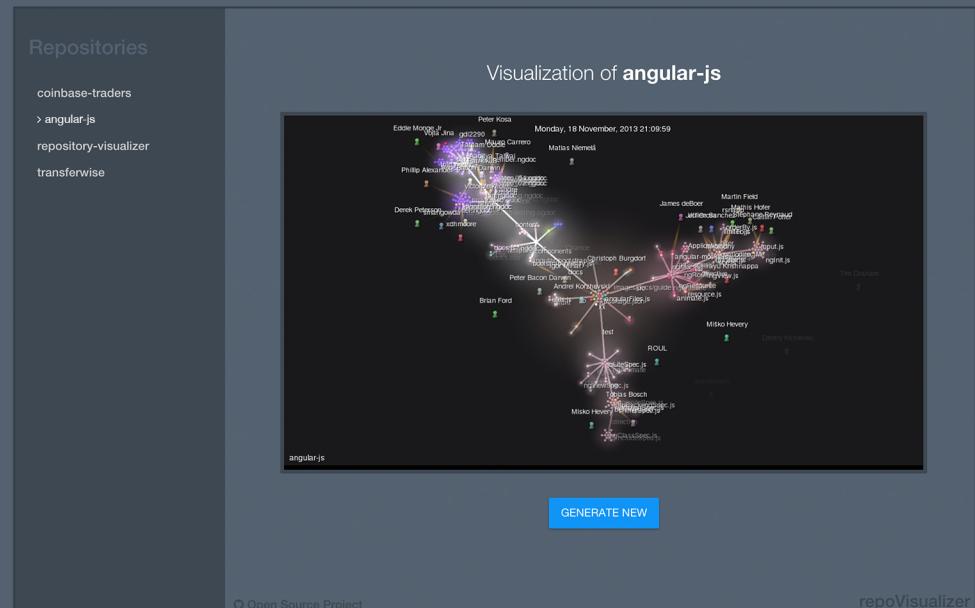

repoVisualizer is a host-yourself web application that uses Source in the background to generate video visualisations of Git and Mercurial repositories. Create, recreate and access them from one place with a press of a button.

Choose your Repository

Generate a video

Sit back and watch the video